

Louise Thompson at Lovelite's Harley Street clinic.

Harley Street treat

Lovelite were delighted to welcome in Chelsea's Louise Thompson for Lipoglaze treatment on her inside thigh to increase her thigh gap, at their Harley Street clinic.

Louise's visit was charted in Heat magazine, who described the cryo treatment as 'thigh-gap lipo', when Louise commented: "I have lost one inch off each thigh."

Sales success

Light-based technology and Rad Frequency expert Ellipse and Venus reported its best sales month ever in its 15 year history of trading.

"The UK economy has recently shown strong growth that is forecast to continue to rise," explains Ellipse's Ashaki.

She adds: "The growth has also been felt in the medical and beauty markets with increasing consumer confidence and demand for aesthetic treatments such as IPL / Laser and Radio Frequency.

"Our sales have been evenly split between Ellipse and Venus, and our sales of Venus to two leading Dermatologists and sales of Ellipse to two top clinics in Belfast and London."

Permanent make-up celebration

Permanent make-up pioneer Karen Betts recently hosted a 'Gift of Confidence' evening in London's West End.

Celebrities, journalists and business associates gathered to hear moving stories from Karen's clients on how permanent make-up had dramatically changed their lives, and learn more about the new Karen Betts Professional website.

Following the event, Karen told GN: "It was a fabulous evening – I'm so pleased so many people came to support me and celebrate the life-changing work permanent make-up can do.

"For me, my clients are the people who inspire me every day to keep on doing what I do and to keep spreading the word about the positive effects medical and cosmetic tattooing has on people's confidence and self-esteem."

Karen Betts pictured with celebrity supporter Arlene Phillips.

Skin care founder spreads her expertise

Repêchage Founder and CEO Lyx Sarfati has had a busy few months travelling the globe to support international distributors and skin specialists.

December saw the Repêchage Net Power Lunch including champagne brunch, hosted by Lydia, take place at the company's New York offices, attended by salon and Spa business owners, skin educators and doctors.

Lydia then travelled to Italy to host salon training at both Milan's Sun and Studio Massofisioterapico DiB Center, alongside Repêchage Educ Natalie Otto, followed by a visit to Bucharest to attend the lavish launch of Repêchage treatments into Romania.

France recognises organic skin care

French skin care brand Doctor Renaud, available in the UK from Skin Evolution Ltd, has scooped two of the most highly acclaimed beauty prizes in France.

For the second year running, the brand has been awarded two Victoires de la Beauté awards for their Docteur Renaud Carrot Scrub Detox and the Docteur Renaud Apricot BB Lips.

The brand's products, originally created over 60 years ago by Dr Renaud, were blind tested by a jury of 80 French consumers who used each product for a month, supervised by an independent sensory evaluation laboratory.