

Star attractions

This month's celebrity client stories and star-studded events

IT'S SUPERNATURAL

Liberty X's Michelle Heaton visited Inanch London last month for the VIP treatment ahead of the Big Reunion Christmas Tour. The singer, who has been a regular client of the salon for numerous years, reportedly asked for her hair to look "more luscious than ever". With this in mind, the salon team opted for Inanch's own-label premium Gold Class hair extensions, weaving together three colours and highlights to create a supernatural finish.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE

Former Strictly Come Dancing judge Arlene Phillips, Olympic long-jump athlete Jade Johnson and model Ashley James were among the famous faces supporting Karen Betts' Gift of Confidence Evening in London last month. Held in celebration of the permanent make-up pioneer's clients, attendees gathered to hear moving stories about how her services have dramatically changed their lives for the better. Key members from several of the charities Betts supports were also in attendance, including a representative from the Katie Piper Foundation and London Haven as well as celebrity manager and founder of cancer charity, Caroline's campaign, Caroline Monk.

MADE IN CHELSEA

Parisian salon Guild Hairdressing opened a new London flagship last month on Chelsea's Kings Road with a celebratory party attended by the area's elite. Celebrities at the event included Made in Chelsea's Hugo Taylor and Marinka Smirnova from Meet the Russians, who joined the salon team to sip cocktails and dance the night away.